SHARE

1. Verse 34 commands followers of Christ to love one another. What does it mean to love those in the family of God?

2. Like Atsushi, we are prone to live for and love ourselves. How do you struggle with loving yourself in place of loving others?

3. We can love because Christ has loved us. How has He shown His love, and how does this change the way you obey this command?

4. Verse 35 reveals that loving one another shows our commitment to Christ. How is loving one another missional, and how is God calling you to respond?
